A youthful Chicago story teller offered the following unique prize story: The minister's wife had nine small chidren, each of which was one year younger than the other. Though poor sie was a dilligent woman."—Treasure

This story was related at a meeting of Sorosis the other day by a lady in whose family it occurred: A small boy was desired to look up the word anonymous and use it in a sentence. He found the meaning to be "without a name," and he therefore handed the following to his happy parent: "Mamma has given us a new baby; it is anonymous."

new baby; it is anonymous."

A funny joke, and all the more palatable, as its truth can be vouched for, says a New Jersey paper, occurred in a prominent church in that State. It seems that a worthy deacon had been very industrious in selling a new church book, costing seventy-five cents. At the service in question the minister, just before dismissing the congregation, rose and said: "All ye who have children to baptise will please to present them next Sabbath." The deacon, who by the way was a little deaf, lawing an eye on selling books, and supposing the pastor was referring to them, immediately jumped up and shouted: "All who lawn't can get as many as you want by calling on me, at seventy-five cents each!"

One day while passing up State atreet One day while passing up State street in Columbus I saw a woman sitting on the curbstone and a dozen or so small boys were teasing her. She was very drunk, apparently. About the time I reached the spot a carriage drove up and stopped near the scene. A lady looked hout of the window, and, taking in the situation at a glance, opened the carriage door, got out, walked up to the drunken woman, and, speaking kindly to her, asked her to take a drive with her. The drunken woman, in a maundering way, complied, and was assisted to the carriage and was driven away.

After they had gone I asked a bystander who the lady in the carriage was, and he told me she was the wife of ex-Governor Hayes.
